In the distant past Trimaris trusted tradition, common sense, and honesty in its self-governance. Now we have grown so large that codified law is necessary, We wish to reaffirm those ideals. These Laws are written for the people, that all may enjoy the recreation of what was best in the Middle Ages without let or hindrance. These laws are issued this 7th day of May, AS L, being 2014 Gregorian.

I. General

A. Pre-Existing Law

1. All prior Greater Kingdom Laws not listed in this publication of law are hereby repealed.
2. Trimaris Kingdom Law will be divided into two levels: Greater and Lesser Kingdom Law
3. Greater and Lesser Laws of Trimaris are subject to mundane law, the Organizational Handbook and the By-Laws of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. The reader is instructed to refer to the Organization Handbook in its entirety for further study and understanding of topics covered by these Laws.

B. Changes to Greater Law

1. The Crown of Trimaris is the protector and patron of these laws. The Crown has the sole right and privilege to propose amendments to Kingdom Law, and after consultation, make official changes to Kingdom Law. The Crown of Trimaris is defined as both the Sovereign and Consort speaking as one voice.
2. In the case of extensive revisions of Great Kingdom Law, a notice in the Kingdom newsletter alerting the populace to proposed changes and directing them to the Kingdom's website will meet the burden of I.B.3
 - a) Any notice published in the Kingdom newsletter pursuant to I.B.3 will include the following: "Those members of the Society for Creative Anachronism who wish to do so may contact the Kingdom Chronicler for a paper copy of the proposed law changes, to be mailed at the Kingdom's expense."
 - b) Any member of the Society of Creative Anachronism may request a written copy of the proposed law changes referred to in the notice at the Kingdom's expense.
3. Proposed amendments, additions, or changes to Greater Kingdom Law must be published in the Kingdom newsletter, Talewinds.
 - a) Amendments to Greater Kingdom Law to correct typographical errors, renumbering, or that do not substantive change the meaning of the law, need not be published for commentary.
4. Correspondence concerning the proposed amendment will be accepted by the Crown for a period of eight weeks.
5. After review of the correspondence by the Crown and review of the laws themselves by the Kingdom Seneschal for conflict with Corpora, Corporate Bylaws, and mundane law, the proposed amendment may become Law.
6. Any new Law enacted by the Crown must be proclaimed at an official event and published in the Kingdom newsletter, Talewinds, at the earliest opportunity. The published change must contain the date and event at which the new law was proclaimed.

B. Interpretation

1. Interpretation of Kingdom Law is the duty of the Crown and the Kingdom Seneschal in consensus. Application of the Law is based upon good will and common sense; against such there is no Law.

C. Publication

1. All changes to The Greater and Lesser Kingdom Laws of Trimaris will be published in the Kingdom newsletter and at least once every three (3) years an updated Kingdom Law will be published in its entirety.

II. Royalty

A. General

1. The rights, duties, privileges and responsibilities of the Crown are detailed in the Organizational Handbook of the SCA Inc.
2. Royal Presence
 - a) The Royal Presence will be defined as the area ten feet in radius around the Sovereign, Consort, Heirs, Thrones, Crowns, Coronets or Sword of State.
 - b) No person will enter the Royal Presence without rendering proper courtesy to the Crown.
 - c) No persons save armigers will bear weapons in the Royal Presence without prior leave of the Crown, or Heirs where applicable.
3. For the duration of Their reign, the King and Queen will be protectors and honorary members of every active Trimarian order with the all the associated privileges except for voting on new members in the case of polling orders.
4. Prohibitions
 - a) No member of Royalty will bestow any award upon their own person.
 - b) Any changes which may financially benefit the Crown will become active at the beginning of the next reign.
 - c) No member of Royalty will hold any other office as defined in the Organizational Handbook during their tenure.

B. The Crown

1. Succession
 - a) In the event one of the ruling monarchs becomes unable to fulfill their duties, the remaining monarch will continue to rule for the normal duration of the reign with the full rights of the Crown.
 - b) In the event both ruling monarchs become unable to fulfill their duties, a Regent will be named.
 - (1) If possible, the Royal Heirs will act as Regents of the Kingdom.
 - (2) If there are no Royal Heirs, the Kingdom Seneschal will act as Regent of the Kingdom.
 - (3) If needed, the Regent will call and hold a Crown Tournament within six weeks. The winner and consort will be immediately crowned by the most recent last sovereign in attendance, excluding the immediately past sovereign.
 - (4) During the interim in which a new Crown is pending, the Regent will act with only those Royal Powers critical to the operation of the Kingdom. In no case may a Regent change Kingdom Law, Kingdom Financial Policy, or bestow any award.
2. Powers
 - a) The Crown will serve as the final avenue of appeal within the Kingdom of Trimaris for any sanction imposed by any officer of the Kingdom.
 - b) Unless specifically stated otherwise, any action or circumstance may be allowed or disallowed at the will of the Crown.

C. The Royal Heirs

1. Succession
 - a) In the event the Royal Heirs become unable or ineligible to fulfill Their duties, The Kingdom Seneschal will call for a Crown Tournament to be held as soon as possible.
 - b) The victor and consort will be crowned Prince and Princess immediately upon the conclusion of the tournament.
2. Powers
 - a) The Royal Heirs may, with the prior written consent of the Crown, bestow any award except elevation to the Peerage Orders, or Augmentations of Arms.
 - b) The written consent of the Crown will include the name of the recipient, as well as the specific award to be given.
3. Royal Files
 - a) The Royal Heirs will have access to all Royal Kingdom files upon request to the Crowns. A date and time will be set convenient to all parties concerned.

D. Crown Tournament

1. Format
 - a) Crown Tournament will be conducted by heavy weapons combat.
 - b) The specific format and style of the tournament will be published in the Kingdom newsletter at least one month in advance.
 - c) If not specifically stated otherwise, the tourney will be double elimination, best 2 out of 3 for the finals.
2. Requirements
 - a) Each prospective competitor and consort must meet the Royal lists entry requirements as set forth in the Organizational Handbook, and be willing and able to fulfill the duties of the Crown.
 - b) Each fighter and consort must physically reside within the borders of Trimaris for at least one year preceding entry into the list.
 - c) Each fighter and consort must have read and be familiar with the Organizational Handbook and Trimaris Kingdom Law.
 - d) In accordance with the Organizational handbook, the Kingdom Seneschal will take such steps as are necessary to ensure that each competitor and consort is a member of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc.
 - e) Each prospective competitor must present him or herself in appropriate armor and weaponry at the start of Crown Tourney.
 - f) All participants must be acceptable to the Crown and must be willing to swear fealty or affirm allegiance prior to participation in Crown Tournament.
 - g) Any Kingdom Officer wishing to enter Crown Tourney must designate in writing to the Crown the person who will replace him or her should that Officer win the Crown 15 (business) days prior to Crown Lyst. The replacement must be acceptable to the present Crown. The letter designating the replacement must also be signed by the prospective replacement.
 - h) Each prospective competitor shall provide the Kingdom Seneschal the following information: The Modern and Society names of both the competitor and consort and the membership numbers of both the competitor and consort.

III. Territorial Nobility

A. Powers

1. The Territorial Baron and Baroness will preside over Baronial events and may hold Baronial Courts.
2. The Territorial Baron and Baroness may establish a maximum of four awards, one of which will be armigerous and three non-armigerous, which will be specific to their Barony.

- a) Additionally, the Territorial Baron and Baroness may establish one non-armigerous award for each Canton of their Barony, which will be specific to the Canton.
3. The Territorial Baron and Baroness, as representatives of the Crown, will have the right to bestow an Award of Arms along with the armigerous Baronial award in consultation with the Crown.

B. Restrictions

1. The Baron and Baroness will swear an oath of fealty or affirm allegiance in person or in writing to each incoming Crown at their Coronation or soon thereafter.
 - a) All Territorial Barons/Baronesses not swearing fealty or allegiance to the Crown will be considered inactive by the Crown and all rights and responsibilities of the Office will revert to the Crown until such time as fealty or allegiance is sworn to the Crown.
2. A Territorial Baron and Baroness may serve for four (4) years in succession.
 - a) Their tenure may be extended for up to an additional two (2) years at the discretion of the Crown, in rare or extraordinary circumstances.
3. The Crown may remove a Baron/Baroness for just cause.

C. Succession

1. At the conclusion of the tenure of the reigning Baronial nobles, the Crown will solicit nominations for the incoming Baronial nobles from the outgoing Baronial nobles, and the populace of the Barony.
2. At the conclusion of the nomination period, the Crown will direct the Kingdom Seneschal to conduct a polling of the Barony.
 - a) No polling will include less than two candidates without the express written permission of the Crown.
 - b) The Kingdom Seneschal will verify the eligibility of the nominees, and their willingness to serve if chosen by the Crown.
 - c) Each polling will include a space next to each candidate that can be marked in numerical order of preference, and an area for commentary on each candidate.
 - d) The polling will be conducted in accordance with the Kingdom Seneschallate Baronial Polling Process Policy.

IV. Chivalry

1. Fealty will be sworn to the Crown of Trimaris by all Knights residing within the borders of Trimaris at Coronation or the first event that the Crown and Knight attend following the Crown's Coronation.
2. Failure to do so may result in mandatory banishment from the Royal Presence, and surrendering of the gold chain and white belt to the acting Principal of the Order until such time as fealty is re-sworn or the Reign ends.
3. Such is the will of the Knights of Trimaris.

V. Grievance Procedure

1. Any person having a grievance will attempt to work through the problem with the parties involved in person.
2. In the event face to face conflict resolution is unsuccessful, any potential complainant will attempt to work through the problem with the parties involved in writing.
3. In the event written conflict resolution is unsuccessful, any potential complainant will contact the officer most directly in charge of the area or activity in dispute in writing, and will carbon copy all principal parties involved.
4. In the event the officer is unable to resolve the conflict, any potential complainant will contact the Kingdom Officer in charge of the area or activity in dispute in writing, and will carbon copy the local officer, and all principal parties involved.
5. In the event that the Kingdom officer is unable to resolve the conflict, any potential complainant will contact the Kingdom Seneschal in writing and will carbon copy the Kingdom Officer, the local officer and all principal parties involved.

6. In the event the Kingdom Seneschal is unable to resolve the conflict, any potential complainant will contact the Crown of Trimaris in writing, and will carbon copy the Kingdom Seneschal, the Kingdom Officer, the local officer, and all principal parties involved.

VI. Courts of Chivalry

A. General

1. Courts of Chivalry within the Kingdom of Trimaris will be for the purpose of investigation into matters within the medieval framework of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc.
2. Courts of Chivalry pertain only to conduct and matters within the structure and definitions of the Society.
3. All other avenues available for settling a matter will be exhausted before a Court of Chivalry is convened.
4. The Earl Marshal and Kingdom Seneschal will have the responsibility for the convening of all Courts of Chivalry in the Kingdom.
 - a) If a Court of Chivalry is convened wherein the Earl Marshal or Kingdom Seneschal is the subject of the inquiry, the Crown will appoint a Peer of the Realm to assume the duties assigned to the Earl Marshal or the Kingdom Seneschal by these laws.

B. Notification

1. Any person or group desiring that a Court of Chivalry be convened for any reason will petition the Kingdom Seneschal, Earl Marshal and the Crown in writing. The petition will include the following information:
 1. The name of the petitioner
 2. The name of the proposed subject of the Court
 3. The nature of the charge(s)
 4. The names of the witnesses against the subject
 5. The nature of the evidence against the subject
2. The Kingdom Seneschal and Earl Marshal will examine the petition and present it to the Crown with advice as to whether the evidence warrants a formal Court of Chivalry.
 - a) If it is determined that the evidence does not warrant a formal Court, the matter may be settled in a lesser manner; for example: by means of a reprimand, or by referring the matter to the Crown and Kingdom Seneschal.
 - b) If it is determined that the evidence does warrant a formal Court of Chivalry, the Earl Marshal will convene the Court as provided for by these Laws.
3. If a Court of Chivalry is to be convened, the Kingdom Seneschal will notify the subject by certified mail that the Court of Chivalry is to be convened, and will include the following information:
 1. A copy of the petition
 2. A list of the formal charges to be brought before the Court
 3. A list of four proposed dates and places for the Court to be held, spanning not less than four weeks and not more than 8 weeks
 4. A copy of this law (containing the procedures for the hearing of the case) and any other laws pertaining to the case
 5. The nature of the evidence against the subject
 - a) The dates will fall on a Saturday or Sunday during a Society event within Trimaris.
 - b) An event may be scheduled for the Court of Chivalry, if necessary.
4. The Kingdom Seneschal will also send a copy of the letter of notification to the subject's local seneschal to ensure notification.
 - a) If the subject's address is unknown and cannot be determined, then this notification will suffice; the seneschal will then make reasonable attempts to notify the subject including general announcements at the local meetings.
5. The subject will have two weeks to reply either from the date that the notification was mailed, or, if the subject's address is unknown, from the date of the general announcement at the local meeting.

6. The subject will choose one of the four proposed dates and places for the convening of the Court of Chivalry.
 - a) If the subject of the Court fails to respond within the period specified by these laws, the Earl Marshal will select one of the proposed dates and places. The Kingdom Seneschal will also notify the subject in writing as to when and where the Court of Chivalry will be held with or without the subject's attendance.
 - b) In the unusual circumstance that none of the proposed dates and places are acceptable, the subject will petition the Earl Marshal and the Crown in writing within ten (10) business days of being notified of the Court of Chivalry, to request another date and place. The granting of said petition will be at the discretion of the Crown.
7. The populace will be notified of the convening of the Court of Chivalry.
 - a) The notification will include the name of the subject of the Court of Chivalry, the charges, the date, and the place the Court of Chivalry will be convened.
 - b) Courts of Chivalry will be open to the populace.

C. Procedure

1. On the day of the Court of Chivalry a jury will be chosen at random from those Peers of the Realm who are present. The jury will be comprised of at least six members.
2. The Crown will preside over a Court of Chivalry
 - a) The Crown may appoint a Peer of the Realm to preside in Their name.
 - b) In cases where the proceedings of a Court of Chivalry extend into the next Reign, the following Crown may re-appoint the former presiding peer to continue in that office to preserve the continuity of the Court proceedings.
3. The composition of a Court of Chivalry and the procedure followed in presenting evidence will be at the discretion of the Crown, Kingdom Seneschal, and Earl Marshal, subject to the restrictions of the Laws of the Kingdom.
4. The Earl Marshal will cause a complete record of the proceedings of the Court of Chivalry to be made by whatever means is determined to be most efficient and reliable.
 - a) A copy of this record will be made available to the subject of the Court of Chivalry.
5. The subject of the Court of Chivalry will be permitted to be represented and advised by counsel as he or she chooses.
 - a) The Crown will appoint a Peer of the Realm acceptable to the subject to aid in his or her defense if the subject so requests.
6. The subject of the Court of Chivalry will have the right to present evidence and call witnesses in presenting his or her defense.
7. Upon the conclusion of the case, the jury will present to the Crown its recommendation for the disposition of the case.
8. The final decision as to what, if any, action(s) will be taken in resolving the case before the Court of Chivalry rests with the Crown.
9. The subject of a Court of Chivalry may appeal any resulting sanction to the Board of Directors of the Society in the manner specified by the Organizational Handbook.
